Stories of a Changing Earth

WHAT?

The students of the class "The History of the Human Footprint on the Earth System" invite you to the poster exhibition:

Planet Market – Stories of a Changing Earth

The exhibition showcases how humans, through their various activities, have shaped the Earth System and left a mark.

WHEN?

The launching of the exhibition will be held at 4.30 pm on July 6th 2016, with a guided tour and a cocktail party. The posters will remain on site for a week.

WHERE?

On the ground floor of the Geomatikum university building, Bundesstraße 55, Hamburg.
